NERCA's F.U.N. Auction Ushers In 1981

Happy New Year from New England Rare Coin Galleries. As this issue of Inventory Selections goes to press, our auction division, New England Rare Coin Auctions, is conducting the first major numismatic auction of 1981: the Florida United Numismatists (F.U.N.) Auction. Held this year in Orlando, Florida, in conjunction with the Florida United Numismatists Convention, the F.U.N. Auction is always closely watched by the collector world as an early indicator of market strength. This year's F.U.N. Sale features outstanding selections of Small Cents, Quarter Eagles, St. Gaudens Double Eagles, California Gold and many others. We will carry a full report of F.U.N. bidding action in next month's Inventory Selections.

Early in April, New England Rare Coin Auctions will be holding a most unusual and exciting sale of collectibles: the first in a set of two auctions to offer the Don Warner Collection of Political Memorabilia. Mr. Warner, one of the nation's foremost collectors of political campaign items, decided to offer his collection through New England several months ago. Mr. Warner's valuable collection is being catalogued by Robert Fratkin, President of the American Political Items Collectors, with the assistance of Joseph Levine and David J. Frent, both well-known political memorabilia hobbyists. Our expert staff is busy arranging the sale's final details. For more information on this historic auction, see the special story inside.

We'd like to remind you that subscriptions to New England's bi-monthly ancient and world coin catalog, New England World Selections, are still free. For your free subscription, write to us. Or call our toll-free number. We'll be happy to introduce you to the fast-growing hobby of world numismatics.

January Special Value

1916 Full Bands Mercury Dimes

New England is offering a special savings on the first issue of 1916 Full Bands Mercury Dimes. The obverse of these beautifully designed coins depicts the head of Liberty, with the wings crowning her cap representing liberty of thought. Pictured on the reverse is a "fasces" which was an ancient symbol of peace. During World War II, this symbol was adopted by the Fascist movement and became identified with Fascism.

New England offers these specially-priced Mercury Dimes in the following grades:

	Regularly	Special
MS-63, Full Bands..	$120.00	$110.00
MS-64, Full Bands..	$145.00	$130.00
MS-65, Full Bands..	$215.00	$195.00
MS-67, Full Bands..	$300.00	$270.00

Reserve your Mercury Dime by calling your New England numismatist today toll-free: 800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts: 617-227-8800). Our special value price will be in effect until February 10.

INVENTORY SELECTIONS is published each month by New England Rare Coin Galleries, 89 Devonshire Street, Boston, MA 02109. Single copy price: $1. Yearly subscription price: $10. All coins are subject to prior sale. All prices are subject to change without notice.

A special series profiling
New England Rare Coin Galleries' numismatic experts.

Joel Brownstein

Professional numismatist Joel Brownstein gained his rare coin expertise from years of attending auctions, trying to increase his own collection. "It was the ideal way for me to expand my knowledge of coinage. Without paying a cent, I was free to visually examine items I could never buy because of their price." This approach to numismatics has given Joel a keen grading eye that compliments his solid financial background. He has worked as a security analyst for two major banks in New York City and as a bank examiner for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. While serving as vice-president of a minority brokerage house, Joel authored a study on "Platinum and the Socio-Economic Condition of South Africa." A registered stockbroker, he holds a BA in History/English from Cornell and Adelphi University, and an MBA in Finance and Investment from City College in New York.

Since joining New England in November, 1979, Joel has specialized in analyzing and predicting the economic and financial trends that affect rare coins. "I look for sleepers, such as Mexican and Canadian coins, Three Cent Nickels and Walking Liberty Half Dollars. The trick is to buy a coin at the bottom of its anticipated cycle."

Joel began collecting rare coins and rare stamps at age six, when his father introduced him to both hobbies. Over the years, he has built up an impressive selection of U.S. Type coins, primarily the Barber series. Recently, he started buying U.S. paper money. "The exquisite beauty and aesthetics of these 'Federal Picassos' has never been matched. I'm building a set of fractional currency for my two-year-old daughter, Elizabeth Lara. I view all paper money as the last vestige of manifest destiny in the area of collectibles."

Besides expanding his coin and stamp collections, Joel enjoys painting, photography and reading economic literature. As for the future of the rare coin and currency markets, he says: "We're going to experience unparalleled growth during the 1980's. The supply of high quality coinage and currency is slowly disappearing, while the demand is rapidly intensifying."

Yesterday's headlines...

In 1976, 407,283 silver dollars were purchased for $7.3 million from the estate of millionaire LaVerne Redfield. This was the world's largest private numismatic transaction — later recorded in the Guinness Book of World Records and in countless national news stories. Today, New England Rare Coin Galleries offers a special selection of Morgan Dollars from this historic hoard — each hand selected by our own numismatists.

Who is the woman pictured on the obverse of the 5 Centavo coin from Mexico? I have also seen her on later issues of the same denomination — C.T., Orlando, FL

You are referring to Dona Josefa Ortiz de Dominguez, a leading Mexican patriot during the 1810 revolution against the Spanish government. She was the first woman ever to appear on Mexican coinage.

Dona Josefa was married to Don Miquel Dominguez, a Mexican native who held the prominent position of Spanish-Colonial Governor of Mexico. The couple, sympathizing with Mexican peasants who were oppressed by Spanish aristocracy, decided to meet with other dissidents and plan a revolt against the government. These 16 conspirators began collecting weapons for a fiesta at San Juan de los Lagos, an event where thousands of peasants would be gathered.

Shortly before the feast, one of the conspirators defected and made a public confession. Don Miquel was named as a member of this group. In his official role as governor, he ordered the arrest of the other conspirators, hoping to carry each arrest out slowly so the men would have time to escape. For protection, he locked his wife in her quarters. Dona Josefa was outraged at this turn of events. Since she could read, but was unable to write, she cut words from a newspaper and formed two letters of warning for the conspirators. One was delivered to Captain Allende, who was armed for action in Miguel el Grande. He immediately launched a revolt, which swept the countryside gathering masses of angry peasants. The second letter, however, was delivered to Joaquin Arias, who was a traitor to the group. He reported Dona Josefa to the town magistrate, and both she and her husband were arrested. Dona Josefa was sent to the Santa Clara convent, and Don Miquel was imprisoned in the Convento de la Cruz. Public pressure demanded their release, but she was rearrested and taken to Mexico City, where the populace was not so sympathetic. The revolt continued for two years and thousands died on both sides before the Spanish regained power. Dona Josefa endured two more trials and was imprisoned in the convent of Santa Teresa until 1817, when a new governor granted her a pardon.

In 1820, Agustin de Iturbide, a wealthy Creole, rallied enough support to create an independent monarchy in Mexico that was free from Spanish rule. He asked Dona Josefa to be a lady of honor in his wife's court, but she refused to support a self-styled emperor when her life was spent making her people free to govern themselves.

Dona Josefa died in 1829. She was a pauper, alone and forgotten. Her memory was revived in 1942, when her portrait was placed on the 1942 5 Centavo coin.

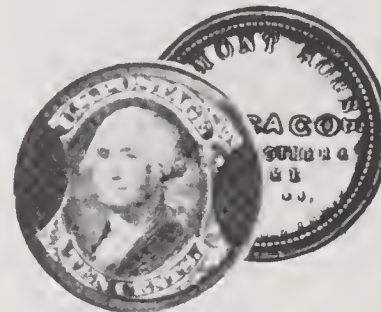

I recently purchased an 1824 Half Dollar which seems to be an overdate. I've been trying to figure out exactly what variety it is, but the standard reference books are contradictory. Can you shed any light on this coin? — N.R., Washington, DC

This is a case where all the experts agree to disagree. The infamous 1824 overdate has been described as 1824 over every figure from 1820 to 1823. (An overdate occurs when the mint uses old dies, punches one year's date over another, and both show through on the coin.) Some experts consider the half dollar a double overstrike (1824/2/0) and others have argued it is a triple overstrike (1824/22/20/19). But there is inconclusive evidence to support any of these theories and the coin remains a numismatic enigma.

Other ambiguous overdates struck during this period include the 1825 Quarter and the 1824 Dime. In fact, all quarters struck in 1825 are overdates because the mint had unused obverse dies from 1822 and 1823. The dime is guessed to be an 1824/3/2 double overdate.

While trying to expand my early U.S. currency collection, I came across an encased postage stamp. I've been told this unusual piece was at one time accepted as U.S. currency. Do you know its history? — J.N., San Diego, CA

Encased postage stamps, of interest to both numismatic and philatelic collectors, were used as pocket change for a brief period during the Civil War. This was a time when government coins, particularly silver, were being hoarded and the public was flooded with counterfeit checks, tokens and other substitutes. Citizens demanded protection from these worthless issues and on July 17, 1862, President Abraham Lincoln authorized the use of postage stamps as currency in small amounts.

The public immediately began buying up masses of postage stamps, but because of their flimsy nature and glued reverses, they were inadequate for circulation. Meanwhile, John Gault, a Boston inventor, came up with a patent for enclosing the stamps in round brass frames that had protective, clear mica covers. (Some of the holders were ribbed or silvered.) Each contained an official U.S. postage stamp and was circulated at the value of the stamp. The most common pieces issued were 1, 3, and 5-cent denominations, though some were issued for 10, 12, 24, 30 and 90-cents. The Scovill Company, of Middlebury, Conn., encased the stamps, then sold them to merchants, who had advertising messages embossed on the back of the brass case. For example, Dr. J.C. Ayer, a patent medicine promoter from Lowell, Mass., used the stamps to promote his Cathartic Pills and Sarsaparilla.

On August 21, 1862, the Treasury Department distributed to the public small fractional notes called Postal Currency. Privately printed, these notes bore the imprints of current 5 and 10-cent postage stamps. They were issued in denominations of 5, 10, 25 and 50 cents, and eliminated the need for encased postage stamps. The next year, Fractional Currency was issued by the Treasury Department to replace the makeshift Postal Currency.

Market Report

by Tim LaPointe

1980: Looking back

1980 was a banner year for the rare coin market, both in U.S. and foreign coinage. While collector interest was at an all-time high, a large number of investors continued to flood the numismatic marketplace. As in the past, rare coins and other tangible assets were viewed as solid hedges against rising inflation rates.

The year began with gold and silver bullion prices suddenly skyrocketing to as high as $675 an ounce and $40 an ounce, respectively. This unexpected surge threw the spotlight on all sorts of tangibles, including rare coins. Consequently, there was frenzied buying in all areas of Choice gold and silver coinage, and extraordinary prices were realized for many pieces. Type One Gold Dollars were changing hands at around $10,000. Meanwhile, silver coins in AU condition were melted down, severely limiting an already depleted supply.

After their initially rapid rise, gold and silver bullion prices fluctuated, with gold stabilizing in April between the low $500s and high $400s. Within weeks, silver bullion settled in the low teens. Frantic buying by speculators ground to a halt, and the strong rare coin collector base reaffirmed its stand. Once again, trends focused on specific areas of coinage, such as 20th century gold and silver dollars, coppers and colonials. Many of these coin types had been neglected during the "gold and silver madness" of January. The market also reflected a rebirth of "quality-consciousness." When truly high-grade specimens of nearly any coin type were offered at shows or auctions, they were quickly snapped up at premium prices.

As 1980 progressed, gold bullion prices began to rise again, but at a much slower pace than in January. By October, gold topped $700 an ounce, but the price has since been fluctuating in the $600 range. Silver bullion fluctuated between the mid-to-high teens until October, when prices reached $21.30 an ounce. This "lull" in bullion price activity prevented a repeat of January's scenario. Currently, however, the rare coin market seems to be on the verge of an upswing and dealers who had been slowly reducing their inventory are finding themselves short of quality material.

Many investor/collectors during 1980 were astute enough to diversify their portfolios. Ancient and world coinage "came out of the closet" as far as the U.S. market was concerned. Investors, as well as financial planners, were committing more energy and capital to this sector of numismatics than in previous years. They realized that a properly built "international portfolio" is highly marketable on the numismatic front. In fact, U.S. interest in world coins virtually assured their continued growth internationally during 1980. This is due to what many market analysts call a "leap-frog" effect. For example, if coins of Germany became popular in the U.S., the demand for these specimens increases and U.S. dealers and collector/investors are willing to pay more than their counterparts in Germany. Before long, the majority of the Germany choice quality coins find their way to the U.S. and German collectors and dealers realize their supply of coins is disappearing. They, in turn, become bolder in the pursuit of these coins until the prices in Germany leap ahead of the U.S. This type of "leap-frog" buying repeats itself over and over in the world coin market.

1981: Some predictions

As we move into the early months of 1981, economic experts predict that the Reagan administration will have little success in dramatically slowing the inflation rate for an extended period. However, because the governments of most Western nations are in the same predicament, the demand for tangibles such as rare coins, is expected to remain strong over the next several months.

Rare coin enthusiasts should watch for a dramatic shift in the price of oil, a Soviet march on Poland and changes in the Middle East. These events could result in an upward swing in the price of gold, and, consequently, an even greater investor interest in tangibles. This could have an impact on the rare coin market, pushing the prices of collectible coinage to a new high.

At the shows

Because of the holidays, market activity was relatively slow last month. Highlights included the Commonwealth Coin Show in Maryland, and the New York International Show, where many U.S. dealers were disappointed by the lack of Choice material. Choice inexpensive coins moved just as quickly as the more expensive items. One Swiss bank sold two large Italian Renaissance coins for more than $25,000 each. Gem coins from the European countries and Japan were also in high demand.

Bidding was fairly active at both the Stack's Auction in New York, and the Thomas L. Moore Sale in Dallas, Texas. Most bidders seemed highly interested in Gem (MS-65) Silver Dollars, Commemoratives and early Lincoln Cents. At the Moore Sale for example, a 1922 Lincoln Cent, in MS-65, with a weakly struck reverse traded hands for $16,500.

Gold

Gold bullion is currently fluctuating at around $600 an ounce, up $6 since our last report. This slight movement in the bullion market is having little impact on rare gold coins. Buyers seem particularly interested in Choice and Gem Common Date Gold Coins, though few suppliers are presently handling this material. Most dealers and investors are also searching for Liberty Half Eagles, Indian Head Eagles, Liberty Head Eagles and $20 gold pieces. At one recent auction, a 1907 High Relief $20 gold piece in MS-67 traded hands at $25,000.

Silver

Silver bullion is still trading at $16.35, the same level as last month. Though the prices of most silver bullion-related items have declined slightly, some silver issues are on the upswing. In particular, Franklin Half Dollars are proving popular items on the numismatic marketplace.

Currency

The demand for U.S. currency is constantly on the rise, particularly in the area of notes under $500. Fractional currency and Gem Small Size notes of pre-1929 issue are actively being sought after in numismatic circles. Dealers are also paying premium prices for U.S. Gold Notes. Although these items are no longer redeemable for gold, they have sentimental value for the collector/investor. In particular, pre-1922 gold certificates are passing hands at significantly higher prices than a few months ago. These pieces are scarce and within the present dealer-to-dealer price range.

New England to auction political memorabilia

As Ronald Reagan begins his term as the 40th President of the United States, New England Rare Coin Auctions is preparing for the sale of one of the finest collections of American Presidential campaign items.

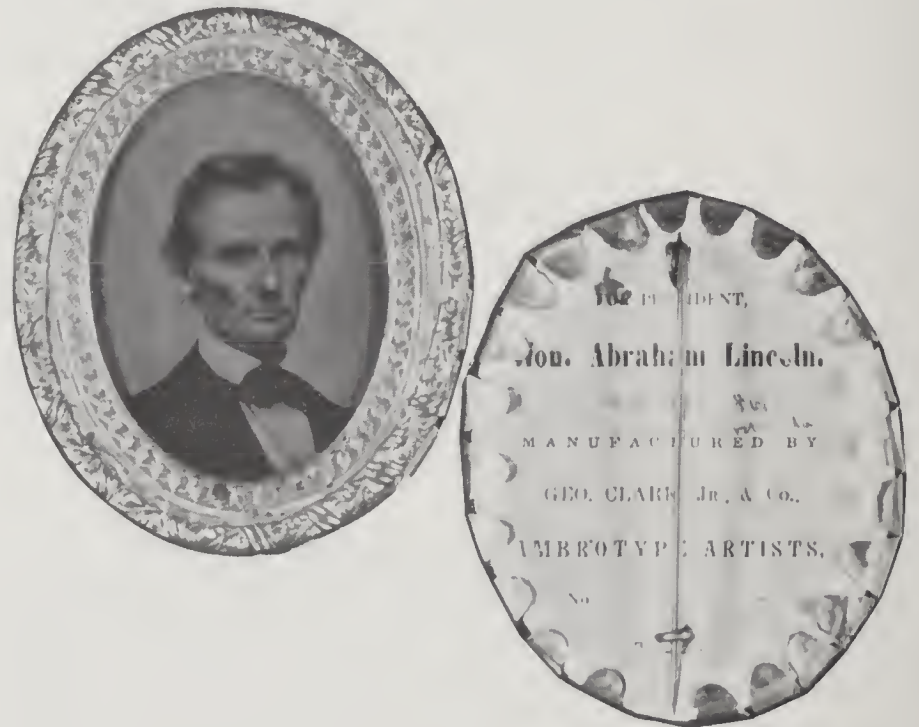

The Don Warner Collection of Political Memorabilia — featuring a wide variety of campaign buttons, ribbons, medals and tokens — will highlight two auctions during 1981, sponsored by New England. The first sale, held by New England, is scheduled for April 4 in New York City, in conjunction with the Metropolitan New York Convention. The second sale is slated for August 8 in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, as part of the American Political Items Collectors Convention (APIC).

Valued in excess of $300,000, the Warner memorabilia is one of the largest private collections of its kind ever offered for public sale. Over 800 lots are included from early 19th century campaigns through the 1980 Presidential campaign. One of the most prized items will be the Cox-Roosevelt celluloid button, dating from the 1920 campaign when James Cox ran for President with future President Franklin D. Roosevelt as his running mate. This specimen, valued at $10,000, is one of five known that measure 1½" and is the only one of this variety known. (It brought $5,800 at a 1976 auction.)

Other key auction items will be a 1928 Hoover-Curtis celluloid pinback button, valued at $2,500 (one of only two known), and a 1920 Harding button, valued at $2,000. A Buchanan-Breckinridge Ambrotype Locket, with portraits of James Buchanan and John Breckinridge set into an ornate locket, is valued at $2,000. (An ambrotype is an early kind of photograph on glass.) Many items from the campaigns of Abraham Lincoln will also be auctioned, including an ambrotype portrait of Lincoln set in a gilded brass frame. The yellow cardboard on the reverse reads "For President, Hon. Abraham — Manufactured by Geo. Clark Jr., and Co., Ambrotype Artists." This item is valued at $1,500.

A resident of Westminster, Maryland, Don Warner began collecting Presidential campaign items 10 years ago. His interest stemmed from an early childhood memory of the 1940 Presidential race between Franklin D. Roosevelt and Wendell Willkie. In Warner's devoutly Democratic family, Republican Willkie was viewed as an almost satanic figure who threatened FDR and the New Deal. Warner has a vivid memory of seeing a Life Magazine cover featuring Willkie's photograph lying on a chair in his brother's bedroom. Years later, in an attempt to recapture this fleeting vision, he began to searching for the magazine in antique stores and flea markets. Here he found Willkie and Roosevelt campaign buttons, which he began collecting. Soon, Warner branched out to memorabilia from other campaigns. Today, he is known as one of the nation's foremost collectors of unusual and intriguing political items.

Like rare coin collectors, political memorabilia hobbyists seek to capture a bit of history in the items they buy. The Warner collection is an outstanding tribute to political Americana. "When you leaf through an album of campaign ribbons from the 19th century, it's like taking a walk through history," Warner says. "Everything is there — the annexation of Texas, the Civil War — everything that happened is reflected in these items."

New England Rare Coin Galleries' Ancient and World Coin Division

A new service for collectors

New England Rare Coin Galleries, world's largest dealer in rare U.S. coinage, also offers an exciting selection of ancient and world coins through its new Ancient and World Coin Division. Established in September of 1979, New England's latest collector service division is headed by internationally-renowned numismatist Frank Garofalo. Mr. Garofalo's considerable numismatic skills have been sharply developed by almost two decades of professional rare coin experience. Before joining New England, he ran his own highly successful coin dealership and served as a District Representative for the American Numismatic Association. Under his direction, New England's Ancient and World Coin Division now brings history's most desirable numismatic rarities to today's collector.

New England World Selections™

New England World Selections is the official catalog of New England Rare Coin Galleries' Ancient and World Coin Division. Each issue of this quality bi-monthly publication offers its readers a spectacular selection of world coinage; a world coin market report; beautiful coin photography (much of it in full color); and many special features. For a free trial subscription to New England World Selections, call New England Rare Coin Galleries toll-free: 800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts: 617-227-8800). New England's Ancient and World Coin Division will be happy to include you on our mailing list.

World Coins

Collecting ancient and world coins is one of man's oldest hobbies. The Emperor Nero collected coins from Greece. Fourteenth century Italian nobles collected Roman coins. English gentlemen of old considered the study of ancient coins a crucial part of a proper education. Today, ancient and world coin collecting is the fastest-growing area in numismatics.

Inventory Selections is proud to present the following offerings of ancient and world coins taken from the latest issue of New England's bi-monthly world coin catalog, New England World Selections. When ordering, please refer to the "W-numbers" that appear before each coin listing. If you'd like a free trial subscription to New England World Selections, which offers New England's entire ancient and world coin inventory, call or write to New England Rare Coin Galleries.

U.S. Currency

As the market for numismatic collectibles grows larger, more and more collectors are broadening their portfolios by including high-quality U.S. currency. No other type of monetary collectible offers greater diversity, beauty and historical interest — and no other collectible augments a quality collection of rare U.S. coinage so naturally. New England is proud to offer the following pieces of rare U.S. currency to Inventory Selections readers, any of which can be ordered simply by using the enclosed order form, or by calling our toll-free number.

SMALL SIZE LEGAL TENDER

FR #1501 $2, 1928, GEM NEW NOTE.	15.00
FR #1504 $2, 1928-C, CHOICE NEW NOTE.	12.00

FR #1504 $2, 1928-C SHEET, GEM NEW SHEET. Uncut sheets were sold at face value to collectors and have always been one of the most prized additions to any collection of modern U.S. currency. This superb 12 subject sheet has never been folded. It displays some normal handling at corner tips, but overall it is as printed. While all uncut sheets are scarce this is the rarest of the $2 legal tender sheets with only 25 sheets released by the B.E.P. Of these 25 sheets only 12 are accounted for. This example serial #'s B8-69A through B8-80A does not fall into the known range of sheets listed in O'Donnell's "Standard handbook of modern U.S. paper money". Probably this was a special presentation sheet pulled off the press and given to a visiting V.I.P. Whatever the situation, a rare opportunity to own a rare and undervalued sheet.	5,950.00

An Invitation to Greater Knowledge

Numismatics is a world unto itself — vast in scope, rich in history, fascinating in detail. To explore this world is to be captivated by it — and to explore it fully is to become a member of the American Numismatic Association.

The American Numismatic Association (the A.N.A.) is the world's largest and most active numismatic organization. And when you join, you'll receive:

Use of the A.N.A. Library The largest numismatic library in the world from which you can borrow all kinds of numismatic reference works.

The Numismatist A scholarly monthly magazine sent free to all regular, club, junior and life A.N.A. members. Through The Numismatist you'll expand your collecting horizons and become knowledgeable in a wealth of numismatic subjects.

ANACS Service The A.N.A.'s grading and authentication service for all your coins at a special membership rate.

Insurances Offered through the A.N.A. for your collection, your health, and your life.

Plus you'll receive a free Dictionary of Numismatic Terms, an Introduction to Numismatics, and an invitation to participate in the A.N.A.'s annual conventions and auctions.

Our Complete Numismatic Services

1. Guarantees

☐ Grading

We guarantee that coins purchased from us are graded correctly and will meet our high standards when you wish to sell them. Further, we guarantee to purchase these coins at the same grade at which they were sold, or sell them for you at auction cataloged at the same grade at which you purchased them.

Our grading system is patterned after that of the American Numismatic Association. Developed in 1978, the A.N.A. System is rapidly being adopted by virtually the entire professional numismatic community. Its designations are:

Poor.....	1
Fair.....	2
About Good.....	3
Good.....	4,5
Very Good.....	8,10
Fine.....	12,15
Very Fine.....	20,25,30,35
Extremely Fine.....	40,45
About Uncirculated.....	50,55,58
Mint State.....	60,63,64,65,66,67,69,70
Proof.....	60,63,65,67,69,70

Slash grades indicate obverse/reverse designations. For example, a grade of 65/63 describes a coin with an obverse of Mint State 65 and a reverse of Mint State 63.

☐ Authenticity

We further guarantee that all coins sold by New England Rare Coin Galleries are authentic. To protect our customers, and as proof of our certainty that no altered or counterfeit coin can escape our attention, we guarantee to refund the full purchase price plus 15% compound annual interest, on any non-authentic coin acquired from us.

☐ Documentation

These guarantees are issued in writing with all coins purchased from New England Rare Coin Galleries. Each written guarantee is personally endorsed by two professional numismatists.

☐ Satisfaction

If, for any reason, you are not satisfied with your purchases, you may return them within 45 days of the date you received them for a full refund or replacement.

2. Expert Counseling

Use New England's toll-free number to consult with some of the most knowledgeable numismatists in America. Our expert staff is often sought by government agencies, museums and other coin dealers for advice on authenticity and value. We supply free information on placing coins in retirement plans, building rare coin portfolios and liquidating collections.

3. Selection

Our multi-million dollar inventory of U.S. rare coins is the largest in the world. New England buyers examine several million dollars' worth of coins each week to bring our customers the very best values.

4. Want Lists

Send your Want List to your New England account executive. He'll use our computerized facilities to help you locate any coin you desire. There is no charge for this service, and you are under no obligation to buy. You will, however, have the first opportunity to purchase each coin on your list that we locate.

5. Personal Service Cards

Call your New England Professional Numismatist and apply for a New England Personal Service Card. It costs you nothing. And it entitles you to:

- ☐ Approval Account Service, whereby you can personally examine coins before you purchase them ($100 minimum order, payment in full due in 30 days).
- ☐ Deferred Payment Service, which makes financing your rare coin purchases easy: 25% down, 25% each 30 days for a maximum of 90 days, and no interest charges! $500 is the minimum order allowed under this plan, $5,000 is the maximum.

6. Auctions

If you have high-quality coins to sell, contact New England Rare Coin Auctions first. Selling at auction is often the best way to receive top dollar for your coins. And New England has conducted some of the numismatic world's finest auctions, including the prestigious Metropolitan New York Auction and the annual auction of the American Numismatic Association. Our toll-free "Auction Line" number is: 800-225-6794, Extension #99.

7. Purchasing

If you prefer to sell your coins directly, send them insured and by registered mail to New England. We will reimburse you for postage costs. Or call our Purchasing Manager, Barbara M. Kennedy, for more information. You will find our buying prices among the highest in the industry.

8. Brochures

New England has several informational brochures which we'll be happy to send to you free upon request. They include:

- ☐ Rare Coins: The Valuable Asset
- ☐ Questions & Answers on Consigning to Auction
- ☐ Coins & Keoghs
- ☐ When You're Ready to Sell Your Rare Coins

9. Toll-free Wats Line

Contacting New England is free. Use our toll-free WATS line: 1-800-225-6794 (in Massachusetts, please call: 617-227-8800). We'll be happy to assist you in any way we can.
